The Serbian Orthodox Church

Photos

(additional photos if possible showing total views, details etc.)

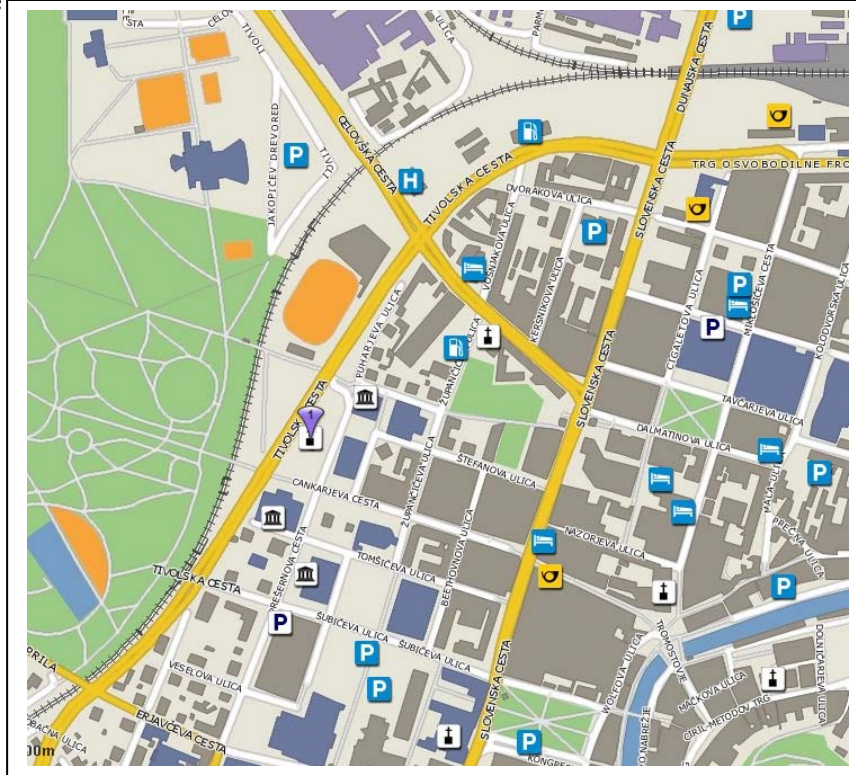

Description

The church is dedicated to St. Cyril and Method, and has five domes. The picturesque frescoes are made by Dragomir Jašević and Miša Mladenović. The author of the iconostasis is Mirko Šubić, of the icon is Jernej Jereb. The church is located in Prešeren Street in Ljubljana on the brinks of Tivoli Park. Nearby there are the National and the Modern Gallery.

The cultural-pastoral center is being built next to the church. There are 46,000 Serbian believers (which is 3% of all the population in Slovenia). Due to such a small number of church-goers, the church is not an autonomous in the regional aspect, but it forms a united metropolis together with the Serbian Orthodox Church in Croatia (Zagreb-Ljubljana).

Interior

Picture	Name	Function
 A photograph showing the interior of a domed church. The view is looking up towards the top of a large dome. The dome is covered in intricate frescoes and mosaics, depicting various religious scenes. Light streams in from several windows around the base of the dome, creating a dramatic play of light and shadow. The architecture features multiple levels of arches and smaller domes, all richly decorated with art.	The dome
